

With the increasing violence in our schools K-love provides positive encouragement for our community in supporting your youth. There is no hate or violence in their message. The station doesn't preach, but encourages and promotes value in every individual. It also affirms that we are loved unconditionally by God which is something many need to hear because they are not feeling loved by those around them.